...Bangkok offers visitors the opportunity to experience fascinating glimpses of Thailand's gentle culture amidst the bustle of a great and dynamic metropolis.

The Grand Palace & Wat Phra Keo (The Temple of the Emerald Buddha)
The Grand Palace and Wat Phra Keo, where the highly-revered Emerald Buddha is housed, is a treasure trove of Thai arts. The complex also features the Royal Thai Decorations and Coin Pavilion, where a permanent exhibition of royal regalia, decorations, medals and coins dating back to early 11th century is on display. The complex is open daily from 8.30 am to 3.30 pm, except on special days designated for royal ceremonies. The admission fee, which also includes entry to Vimannak Mansion, is 100 baht. Visitors are advised that polite and modest dress is essential.

Ananda Samakhom Throne Hall
Built during the reign of King Rama V, this Italian Renaissance styled marble Throne Hall is primarily used to hold important royal and state ceremonies. At present, it displays the exhibition "Arts of the Kingdom VII" which consists of masterpieces of Thai craftsmen created with utmost skill by the SUPPORT Training Center, Chitralada Villa.

Vimannak Mansion
Built in 1901 to serve as a royal residence of King Rama V, the three-story mansion is the largest golden teak wood building in the world, comprising 81 rooms, halls and chambers. Situated on the east wing of Vimannak Mansion is the Abhishek Dusit Throne Hall where intricate handicrafts created by villagers who are members of Her Majesty the Queen's SUPPORT Foundation are on display. Vimannak Mansion is open daily from 9.30 am to 3.30 pm. Admission is 100 baht but free for those who come with the tickets to the Grand Palace. Polite attire is required. For details, visit www.vimannak.com

Wat Benchamabophi (The Marble Temple)
Constructed during the reign of King Rama V, this unique marble temple is a traditional Thai architecture with European influences which are evident in its use of Carrara marble and stained glass. The temple is open daily from 8.00 am to 5.00 pm.

Wat Arun (The Temple of Dawn)
This famous Bangkok landmark is on the Thon Buri side of the Chao Phraya River directly opposite the Grand Palace complex and easily accessible by boat from the Bangkok side. The temple dates back to the Ayutthaya period. The temple was enlarged by King Rama II and King Rama III. Renovations were completed in the reign of King Rama V. The Emerald Buddha was enshrined in this temple for a brief period before King Rama I built the Grand Palace and Wat Phra Keo on the Bangkok side.

Wat Pho (Temple of the Reclining Buddha)
Adjacent to the Grand Palace enclave, Wat Pho houses the famous 46-metre-long Reclining Buddha. The temple was also the first centre of public education in the Kingdom. Nowadays, it serves as an important centre for the teaching and administering of traditional Thai massage. Wat Pho is open daily from 8.00 am to 5.00 pm. Modest attire is required.
